

InComm Names New Vice President of International Frank Monaco to Join Management Team

ATLANTA, April 9, 2009 — InComm, a leading provider of prepaid transaction processing and electronic point-of-sale (POS) distribution solutions, announced today that Frank Monaco will join InComm's management team as Vice President of International reporting to Brian Parlotto, Senior Vice President of Products and International.

As InComm's VP of International, Frank will be responsible for managing and developing current and future international business. This will include the development and execution of strategies aimed at expanding InComm's global distribution footprint along with the development of new products and services offered in the international prepaid market.

"Frank is an award-winning executive with the right combination of background, experience and insight into the international prepaid and stored-value industry," said Parlotto. "His proven track record will undoubtedly help InComm capture new business and continue to drive the evolution of the prepaid space."

Monaco's experience spans more than 12 years in a variety of industries, including retail, communications, and prepaid. He most recently served as the Managing Director of The Americas at Stored Value Solutions International. While at SVS he planned, implemented and executed sales and marketing strategies targeted toward establishing SVS as a gift card provider in Canada, Mexico, South America, and Continental Europe. Prior to Stored Value Solutions, Frank was the National Sales Planning Manager at Rogers Communications, Inc.

"I am excited about joining the InComm team and look forward to growing the opportunities for this world-class prepaid operation," said Monaco. "I'm already developing key strategies which will continue to advance InComm's industry-leading innovation and international growth."

Frank earned a degree in business marketing from University of Toronto, Mississauga, Ontario.
