

InComm Canada Names New General Manager Karen Budahazy to Join Management Team

ATLANTA, September 1, 2009 — InComm, a leading provider of prepaid transaction processing and electronic point-of-sale (POS) distribution solutions, announced today that Karen Budahazy will join InComm Canada's management team as General Manager reporting to Brian Parlotto, Senior Vice President of Products and International.

As InComm Canada's General Manager, Karen will be responsible for managing sales teams, their initiatives and developing new product revenue opportunities in Canada. This will include the execution of strategies aimed at expanding InComm's global distribution footprint along with the development of new products and services offered in the international prepaid market.

"Karen is a results-driven executive with strong background, experience and insight into the international prepaid and stored-value industry," said Parlotto. "Her relationships in the industry and proven track record will undoubtedly help InComm Canada secure new business and continue to drive the evolution of the prepaid space."

Budahazy's experience extends across 15 years and a variety of industries including 9 years in multi-faceted payment processing in the prepaid and stored value arena and experiences with retail. She most recently served as the Executive Vice President/COO at Givex Corporation. While at Givex, she was instrumental in the company's international expansion while managing operations out of the Toronto office.

"I am excited about joining the InComm team and look forward to utilizing my experience in stored value and loyalty transaction processing to bring a new perspective to InComm Canada," said Budahazy. "I'm ready to begin developing new programs to advance InComm's industry-leading innovation and international growth."

Karen earned an MBA from the Schulich School of Business at York University in Toronto, Ontario.
